District approved without objections

Supervisors delay picks for sewer district board

BY DENA BISNETTE

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors has called a special board meeting at 9 a.m. Wednesday for appointment of a board of commissioners for the county's first sewer district.

The supervisors granted final approval for the district Friday when no one appeared to object at a public hearing, but had to delay creation of the board of commissioners due to an apparent misunderstanding regarding what parts of the county the commissioners should represent.

The district is being created in conjunction with a Waveland Regional Wastewater Management District project that will eventually link the Waveland and Bay St. Louis sewerage systems and extend sewerage to parts of four county subdivisions including Garden Isles, Shoreline Park, Jourdan River Estates and Jourdan River Isles.

The county district is designed to raise revenue for construction, operation and maintenance of a planned sewerage collection system that will be hooked into an existing treatment facility, the Waveland wastewater treatment plant.

The district has the authority to contract with the regional wastewater district for actual operation of the system, according to attorney Lucien Gex.

Gex said the first phase of the county district is entirely in Beat Five but plans have already been made to add a section of Beat Four.

The location of the first phase of the county district gave rise to the misunderstanding regarding the board of commissioners, according to Board of Supervisors President A.A. Kellar.

Kellar, acting on instructions from Gex, contacted board members Thursday to tell them that they needed to make selections for the board of commissioners.

Beat Five Supervisor James Travirca, who said he was acting on Kellar's instructions, said he had understood that the commissioners should all live, operate businesses or own property in the proposed district.

He said he then believed that all five should represent Beat Five, and found five people willing to serve from that area.

Beat Three Supervisor Roger Dale Ladner believed he was supposed to select one commissioner, and chose a person who lived in Beat Three but also owned land in Beat Five.

Beat Four Supervisor Sam Pernicaro stated that he was concerned about who would represent Beat Four and the other parts of the county not presently included in the sewer district but which could be added in the future.

After the board had decided, on advice from Gex, that each supervisor should select a commissioner, Beat One Supervisor Bert Courree said he could not provide the name of a qualified person Friday.

He said he was concerned about potential commissioners' qualification because of the nature of the district.

The board agreed to delay the matter until Wednesday after consultant Ray Eaton stated that the few days involved would not cause a problem with any of the deadlines for grants and loans that the regional district is trying to obtain for the county sewerage system.

News brief

BPW MEETING

The Bay-Waveland Chapter of Business and Professional Women has set a May 20 deadline for collection of its annual membership dues. Present members are asked to return their mail surveys and dues by that date.

Prospective members may attend the club's membership meeting at 6:30 p.m. May 26 at Cindy's Restaurant in Waveland Resort Inn.

LeStelle said the association would fight any move "until the day they do it."

The two postal officials, Kenny D. Davis and John Fasler, explained that the move being eyed would be beneficial to residents of both Clermont Harbor and Lakeshore and that "a proposal hasn't even been developed yet."

Davis said that the postal service routinely looks at combining, moving, expanding or closing any post office when a postmaster leaves.

Postmistress Betty Klein retired in January and Murry Bigott has been serving as acting postmaster since then. In addition, the postal service is trying to use fewer leased facilities and the Clermont Harbor building is being leased from Klein.

The service is looking at combining the Clermont Harbor facility with the Lakeshore Post Office, currently in temporary quarters in a trailer, and at building a new facility on Lower Bay Road between Lakeshore Drive and Clermont Road.

The Gulfport office has been collecting input from Clermont residents through a mail questionnaire but has not yet begun questioning Lakeshore residents about the idea.

Both communities would retain their own names in addresses but would have a new, combined zip code and more possibilities of rural home delivery, Davis said.

The choice between boxes and home delivery and all other services would continue but would be expanded.

If the Gulfport office decides to make a formal proposal, a notice will be posted in both existing post offices.

Davis said a 60-day public comment period would follow, then the Postal Rate Commission in Washington, D.C. would have to approve the proposal.

The first 30 days of a required 60-day waiting period for any post office closing would be the time during which the public could file an appeal against whatever decision the rate commission makes about the proposal.

BICYCLE RACERS leave the starting line Saturday during a race sponsored by Hancock Medical Center. The 10-mile bike race was preceded by a five-mile run sponsored by the hospital and hosted by Gulf Coast Running Club. Overall winners for the bike race were Andrew Barrett of Bay St. Louis, first place; Steven Panella of Bay St. Louis, second place; and Pete Hansen of Gulfport, third place. Overall winners in the male and female divisions of the run were Joe Val Overstreet of Hattiesburg and Maureen Junis of Gulfport. Competitors in both events ranged from under 12 to more than 60 years old, according to Hancock Medical Center Community Relations Director Mary Perkins. Male and female first place winners in the run's age divisions included Jeb Barry, 12 and under; Chuck Branson and Diane Barnes, 13-19; Jose Beaton, 20-24; Mark Koch and Susan Nicholson, 25-29; Tom Reagan and Karen Moore, 30-34; David Sawyer and Melva Fisher, 35-39; Jim Taylor, 40-44; John Suarez, 45-49; Linda Sullivan, 50-59; and John Pouncey, 60 and older. ## Coach files appeal in Chancery Court

BY DENA BISNETTE

Bay Junior High School Coach Gary Blaize has filed an appeal in Hancock County Chancery Court on a Bay St. Louis-Waveland School District Board decision.

Last week, the board made public its decision to stick to a previous recommendation for nonreemployment of Blaize for the 1987-88 school year.

Blaize had appealed the nonreemployment recommendation in an April 27 hearing before the board, in which he was represented by Gulfport attorney Chester Nicholson.

Blaize had requested that the hearing, which began shortly after 7 p.m. and lasted until about 2 a.m., be held in executive session.

In other business regarding the board's nonreemployment recommendations, a hearing for North Bay Elementary teacher Juanita Mitchell, not completed after testimony by the first two witnesses took more than three hours, is scheduled for continuation at 5 p.m. Monday, school board attorney Lucien Gex stated.

A hearing for district band director Lana Kay Jones, also recommended for nonreemployment, had been delayed this week at her attorney's request but has not yet been rescheduled, Gex added.

Petitioners continue to try for election on bond issue

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

County residents seeking to force a general election on a $6.6 million bond issue have reported more than 100 additional names have been certified as qualified voters on a petition calling for the election.

This brings the total of signatures certified on the petition to more than 1,600. However, 97 of these names must be excluded from the total because these same persons later signed a counter-petition to have their names removed.

Based on this information, there are apparently more than the necessary 1,500 names required to call an election on the issue.

The original petition included 1,751 names and petition supporters say they will be able to provide information to Circuit Clerk John Rutherford so that even more names will be certified as qualified voters.

"If the petitioners disagree with the board's judgment,

it will be up to them to instigate a lawsuit"

Adams said it is apparent from examining the petition documents that many of the names were signed by the same person.

"No legal action will be required to determine if the names are forged," Adams said. "The school board can make that judgment."

"If the petitioners disagree with the board's judgment, it will be up to them to instigate a lawsuit," he added.

Adams also said since the school board made a final adjudication on the petition earlier based on information certified by the circuit clerk, he did not think any new information would make a difference.

Until such a time as the circuit clerk certifies 1,500 names on the petition as qualified voters, excluding the forged names and those of people who do not live in the school district, action on the bond issue will proceed.

School board members declined to comment on the issue, explaining they were following advice of attorneys.

Mississippi Power Co. to build new office

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

Plans are underway for a new Mississippi Power Company office and service center in Bay St. Louis.

The new office will be located at the intersection of US-90 and Dunbar Avenue.

According to Mississippi Power Spokesman John Hutchinson, the company has acquired all the property fronting on Dunbar Avenue between US-90 and Ullman Avenue.

"The new office will be big enough to adequately serve customers and will feature a drive-through window for paying bills and an auditorium for public use," Hutchinson added.

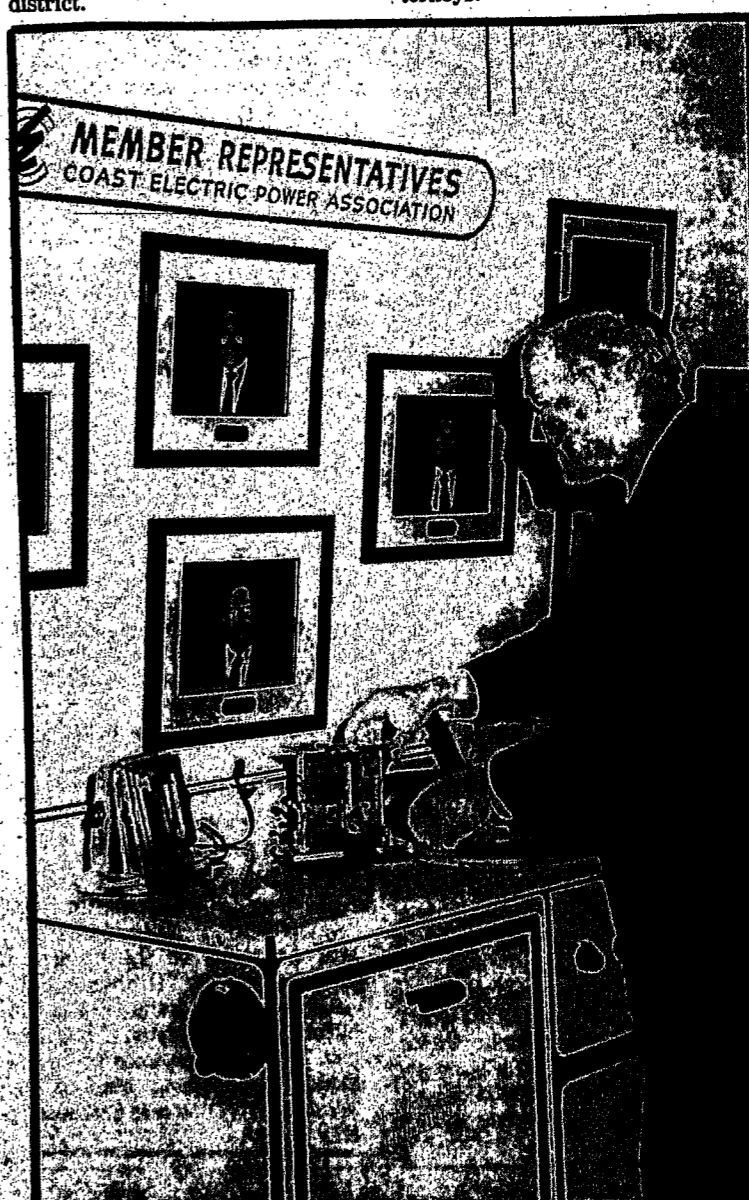

The new location will also provide enough parking for customers who now have only one parking spot available at the office's current location on Main Street.

The larger office will serve all Hancock County area and Pass Christian customers.

"The drive-up window will be an added convenience for customers," he said.

A large area for service crews and a garage for equipment and vehicles is also being included in the plan.

Construction on the project is expected to begin in September or October, Hutchinson added.

ANTIQUES—Conrad Mauffray of Coast Electric Power Association adds an old toaster to a collection of antique kitchen appliances displayed Friday during Coast Electric's 50th anniversary open house. The event also featured an exhibit of old photographs. The anniversary observance has also included open houses at the utility's Gulfport, Poplarville and Piquette offices. ## Postal officials eyeing move for Clermont office

Clermont Harbor Civic Association is planning a special meeting to oppose a proposed move for the community's post office.

Civic Association member Peter LeStelle presented two officials of the U.S. Postal Service's Gulfport Management Section Center who visited Clermont Harbor this week with a 71-signature petition opposing any changes other than expansion.

POSSIBLE MOVE—The Gulfport management section center of the U.S. Postal Service is considering combining the Clermont Harbor Post Office, currently housed in a leased building on Clermont Boulevard, with the Lakeshore Post Office, which is operating out of temporary quarters in a trailer. Officials of the Clermont Harbor Civic Association have stated that their organization is opposed to moving the post office. (Staff photo by Dena Bisnette)

Marriage Encounter weekend slated

BILOXI—The Gulf-Lake Marriage Encounter Community will sponsor a Marriage Encounter Weekend on June 5-7, 1987, in the Retreat Center at St. Joseph Abbey, St. Benedict, La., just north of Covington, according to Jerry and Libby Fabre, co-ordinators of the Gulf-Lake group.

The weekend will begin at 8 p.m. on Friday, June 5 and will end on Sunday evening, June 7.

The Gulf-Lake group includes St. Tammany and Tangipahoa Parishes in Louisiana as well as several gulf coast counties in Mississippi.

The Marriage Encounter weekend is a positive, simple, common-sense and personal experience between husband and wife, that revitalizes a marriage by helping couples to see what their personal relationship could and should be.

Through the Marriage Encounter couples learn a communication technique which allows and encourages exploration of the important aspects of life together in a spirit of love and understanding.

Couples interested in finding out more about the Marriage Encounter weekends may contact Dan and Pam Griffon at 452-2092.

Marriage Encounter weekends are sponsored several times each year by the Gulf-Lake Community of the World Wide Marriage Encounter, a non-profit organization.

After the June weekend the next scheduled weekend is set for August 14-16 at the Ramada-Inn of Slidell.

Juveniles, adult charged

BY DENA BISNETTE

Two juveniles have been taken into custody by the Hancock County Sheriff's Department in connection with burglaries at three Shoreline Park residences.

According to Investigator Glen Strong, the two juveniles, ages 13 and 14, were picked up by officers on Thursday. One was released in custody of a parent and the other was turned over to Youth Court authorities, Strong said.

Nothing was taken in the burglaries but the suspects allegedly broke into the residences with intent to steal, the investigator added.

In an unrelated incident, an adult was arrested Thursday and was charged with burglarizing a dwelling in BaySide Park.

Strong said Joy Triana, 45, of BaySide Park was jailed on $1,000 bond.

Both investigations are continuing with Strong in charge.

Shining As Lights in The World

To the Philippian church Paul taught, "Do all things without murmurings and disputings: that ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world." (Phil. 2:14-15)

Jesus said, "...I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life." (John 8:12)

Speaking of John the Baptist, John said, "The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the light, that all men through him might believe. He was not the light, but was sent to bear witness of that light. That was the true light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world." (John 1:7-9)

Jesus came to the earth to reveal the Father. "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father but by me. If ye had known me, ye should have known the Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him." (John 14:6-7)

As the light, Christ revealed the light from the Father. John declares, "...God is the light, and in him is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus his son cleanseth us from all sins." (1 John 1:5-7)

To walk in the light is to walk in truth. Jesus prayed, "Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth." (John 17:17)

In the sermon on the Mount Jesus said, "Ye are the light of the world. A city that is hid cannot be hidden. Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on a stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before men, that they may see your good deeds and praise your Father in heaven." (Matthew 5:14-16)

Let us keep in mind the light is the truth of the gospel of Christ. Christians represent Christ on the earth. Our lives should imitate the ideals of Christ as much as is humanly possible. Jesus worshipped the Father in heaven. He prayed often. He was pure in life. He loved man enough to give his life's blood on the cross of Calvary.

We must dedicate our lives to follow in his footsteps. Peter's words about him were, "Who did no sin neither was guile found in his mouth: Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously." (1 Peter 2:22-23)

We must give our lives in obedience to his gospel. (Mark 16:16; Acts 2:38; Acts 22:16; 1 Peter 3:21; Acts 2:47)

Be faithful in commemorating his death, burial and resurrection and proclaim faith in his coming again by observing the Lord's supper of the first day of every week. Acts 20:7; 1 Cor. 11:23-29)

Let us shine forth as lights in the world.

Quotables by CUEVAS

Election time is nearing and we have noted several posters affixed to utility poles in Harrison County.

As most folks know, there are ordinances and laws prohibiting using utility poles to post posters. It seems every election some over anxious supporter of a candidate or candidates will eventually nail up some posters in areas where such practices are not legal.

This leads to a candidate having to have the posters removed from the utility poles.

If candidates use posters for their campaign, we hope they will make sure they are posted properly.

Within the next several weeks hundreds of young boys and girls will be graduated from area high schools.

Many of these graduates are planning on continuing their educations by attending a college or university, and this is very good.

High school graduates should make every possible effort in continuing their educations.

Opportunities are few nowadays, and the best positions go to those with a better education.

We urge all high school graduates to please continue their educations.

Dr. Marion J. Wolfe Sr. was given the honor of having the Nursery at Hancock Medical Center dedicated to him on Friday.

Dr. Wolfe has delivered more babies in Hancock County than probably anyone before him in this nation's history.

Having graduates from Tulane Medical School in 1933, Dr. Wolfe had been in practice for over 50 years. He just recently retired.

We have had the honor like many others of knowing Dr. Wolfe for many years and feel he has received a very deserving award.

Before the dedication he was commenting as to how it will only be a few months and football season will be in swing again.

An avid sports fan, Dr. Wolfe has been associated with St. Stanislaus since 1919, first as a student, and then as the school's doctor.

We wish Dr. Wolfe well and hopes he will continue enjoying his well-deserved retirement.

Dr. William Bradford, a member of the new Hancock Medical staff is seeking a photo of the old King's Daughter Hospital which was located on Carroll Avenue in Bay St. Louis.

I was born at the old hospital on Carroll Avenue myself like many residents of the area.

One of the reasons Dr. Bradford would like a photo of the old hospital is to make a copy of it so it can be displayed along with Hancock General in the lobby of the new Hancock Medical Center.

If you have a photo, give Dr. Bradford or Mary Perkins a call at 467-9081; if they are not available, one of them will return your call.

CAUGHT MY EYE—When I turned on Oak Street in Pearlinton last week, the first thing I spotted at the end of the road was this group of red Calla lilies. They were planted by Mrs. Erlene Carter, whose yard indicates she has a 'green thumb'. The lilies were in full bloom. (Staff photo by Ellis Cuevas).

Q: I will be graduating from college in May of this year with a bachelor degree in criminal justice. I am interested in finding out what qualifications are required for an agent position with your agency? (J.C. Jackson, MS)

A: The qualifications that are to be met for employment as an agent with Mississippi Bureau of Narcotics can be found in Section 41-29-107 of the Mississippi Code. They are as follows:

Candidates for employment must be between the ages of twenty-one and thirty-six years at the time of appointment.

Such candidates must have completed two years of collegiate study or can substitute for such educational requirements law enforcement experience at the rate of two years experience for each year of collegiate study.

Candidates must be citizens of Mississippi and of the United States. Candidates must be of "good moral character."

In addition applicants for employment are subjected to strenuous testing and thorough background investigation prior to their selection, and upon being hired intensive training will be given.

Q: Violence is dramatized in a lot of the popular television shows like Miami Vice. Is it a big part of the drug scene in Mississippi? (M.J. Hattiesburg)

A: We are seeing a significant increase in the amount of violators who are armed during drug deals recently in Mississippi than we have seen in the past.

Statistics for 1986 reflect that out of 1,052 persons arrested 116 of those were armed. And of those 116 some were armed with more than one weapon.

If you would like to ask a question, address it to Mississippi Bureau of Narcotics, P.O. Box 6462, Jackson, MS 39212.

The People's Business

Weekly Editorial
From Mississippi Economic Council

NOW IT'S THE TIME FOR COUNTY UNIT ACTION
Mississippians interested in the improvement of county government will want to be reminded that elected supervisors in every county in the state must make a decision on the question of county unit before July 1 of this year.

Under legislation enacted in 1981, county boards of supervisors must adopt resolutions related to county unit every four years, and this is the year for the decision.

The question is whether the county will operate under the unit system or whether it will operate five separate road programs under the beat system.

The law requires the board to make a decision and publish that decision in its minutes by July 1 of this year.

The benefits of the unit system as compared to the beat system of county road operations are well documented. Legislative and other committees have for years pointed to the losses of "millions of dollars" in wasted tax dollars in counties operating five separate road programs. Still, only about 18 counties have implemented the unit system, or moved toward implementation.

Taxpayers concerned about the use of their tax dollars at the county level will want to make their voices heard before July 1.

Now is the time for all citizens interested in good government to call on members of the board of supervisors for a vote for county unit.

Mississippi could become the furniture capital of America within three years if barriers are removed that stand in the way of further expansion of the industry, the Mississippi Economic Council has reported.

Mississippi's almost 200 furniture and furniture-related manufacturers now have a $1 billion impact on the state and its economy, according to the recently published MEC report.

The report, an attempt by MEC to identify barriers to the continued expansion of the industry, includes a history of the industry in Mississippi dating back to the 1940s, an economic impact summary, and the results of a survey of furniture manufacturers on barriers to industry growth.

Mississippi is the nation's second largest furniture manufacturing state, trailing only North Carolina, and the gap is rapidly being closed, the MEC report said.

Four years ago, North Carolina's volume of manufactured furniture led Mississippi by some $2 billion. By 1986, this gap narrowed to only $63 million.

Furniture manufacturers in Mississippi told the MEC that this state can overtake North Carolina by 1990 if certain barriers are removed.

The greatest barrier to the industry, according to the manufacturers, is the high cost of liability insurance caused by the threat of lawsuits. Other problems include the lack of adequate highways and problems related to government regulation.

MEC President Boh Pittman said the expansion potential of the state's furniture industry has become increasingly important during this time of slow economic growth.

And the Mississippi Research and Development Center is expecting continued growth in the industry, the report stated.

"The R&D Center emphasizes that the end of the industry's growth in Mississippi is not in sight. One industry observer suggests that other major furniture manufacturers not presently located in Mississippi are searching for opportunities to locate in the state," the report said.

Attractive to the prospective manufacturers is the state's central location between major markets, the abundant supply of raw materials, and the state's reputation of having a skilled labor force with a tradition of nonunionism.

MEC addressed two of the three major barriers facing the furniture industry in the 1987 legislative session - the need for tort reform legislation and support of the highway construction program.

Though unsuccessful in tort reform this year, Pittman said the Council already is planning its work in the 1988 legislative session in support of tort reform bills.

And the Council has called on the state's congressional delegation and state government officials to continue examination of unnecessary and inappropriate state and federal business regulations which adversely affect business growth.

Proclaim Liberty!

Thoughts about "Secular Humanism"

At the time of the Palmer raids after the First World War, which made J. Edgar Hoover's reputation as a sterling enemy of Communism, there was a good deal of chatter about something called "Bolshevism." It was a fearsome something - nobody knew just what.

There were, of course, a handful of Bolsheviks who comprised one caucus among the fighting Marxist sectarians of the Russian Revolution. Eventually they came, through brutality and ruthlessness, to dominate the scene.

But there were many caucuses within the Marxist camp, just as there were many brands of communism. Until the Russian Revolution, most Americans who heard of "communism" would think of the Christian communism of the Rapites, the perfectionists of Onedia, the Shakers, the Harmonists, the Inspirationists of Amana, the Hutterites - all of them small communities of Christians who believe(d) themselves to be imitating the Christians of the Early Church at Jerusalem.

So "communism" wasn't yet a scare word, and "Marxism" was still too snobbish a term for everyday use. But "Bolshevism" - there was a word to wave in the wind. Few knew where it came from. Fewer still could tell what the reference was. But it sounded bad.

Like the later buzz-words "Third World" and "Palestinian," "Bolshevism" came to communicate powerful ideas. Those words were created to evoke a certain emotional response: they were never meant to indicate anything concrete. Lin Plao invited, "Third World." The PLO brought "Palestinian" into everyday use.

"Secular humanism" is a new phrase that has the same standing. A decade ago no one had ever heard those buzz-words. They are still meaningless in any philosophical or theological discourse.

But through insistent reiteration by political and religious demagogues, "Secular Humanism" has now become a political weapon.

"Secular Humanism," like "Bolshevism" and "Third World" and "Palestinian," is a powerful tool for undermining the confidence of Americans in their public school system.

There have been, of course, different periods in which one type of Humanism or another played an important role in the intellectual history of Western civilization.

At the time of the Renaissance, a revival of ancient learning came to be called "classical humanism." At the time of the Reformation, a parallel revival of attention to early Christian texts came to be called "Christian Humanism." But until the righting religious extremists in America went to work, within the last decade, "humanism" was never a bad word. "Humanistic" learning - of the known classical and Christian types - was highly esteemed among the educated.

As a matter of fact, it still is. U.S. District Judge W. Brevard Hand will hardly change the attitudes of the literate and the academic with his 172-page ruling in Mobile, Ala. He may claim that the U.S. Constitution requires banning 36 textbooks from Alabama public schools. He may claim that the textbooks illegally promoted "the religion of secular humanism." But there is no such thing, except in the minds of those frightened by the evangelists of Gog and Magog, Armageddon and the end of the world.

Why lawyers turn theologians, whether they are legislators or judges or executives, they very seldom do a good job. James Madison was an exception, but he believed in Religious Liberty. And he believed that courts should adjudicate and not legislate. But that was 200 years ago.

Mississippi celebrates National Tourism Week May 17-23

Mississippi will join in recognition of the importance of the travel and tourism industry during the week of May 17-23, 1987.

This month, President Reagan signed into law the Congressional Resolution proclaiming the week as National Tourism Week.

"Tourism is important to the economy of the nation as a whole, and to all of us in Mississippi," said Al Elmore, acting director of the Tourism Division, Mississippi Dept. of Economic Development. "That's why the National Tourism Week theme, 'Tourism Works for America' has special meaning."

Economic data prepared by the U.S. Travel Data Center, an affiliate of the Travel Industry Association, confirms this. In all 50 states, travel and tourism is big business generating millions, or even billions, of dollars for state economies. According to TIA, annual spending on travel and tourism ranges from a high of $29 billion in California to more than $429 million in Rhode Island. USTDC estimates for 1986 show that travel-generated expenditures in Mississippi totaled $1.3 billion.

Because of the enormous sum that some 240 million Americans spend on travel pursuits, this industry acts as an economic catalyst expanding employment and increasing tax receipts. Approximately 34,000 jobs are generated by travel and tourism in Mississippi, and over $87 million in state and local tax revenues, according to 1986 preliminary estimates by the U.S. Travel Data Center. Nationally, tourism generates $31 billion annually in federal, state and local tax revenues.

Citing the importance of the tourism industry to the state, Governor Bill Allain proclaimed May 17-23 as National Tourism Week in Mississippi. The state Tourism Division and several communities around the state are planning special events during the week.

In Mississippi's nine Welcome Centers, operated by the Tourism Division, staff and community volunteers will extend special greetings to visitors throughout the week. Crafts demonstrations, free refreshments, surprise gifts, music and exhibits are scheduled.

Community celebrations range from a balloon release in Columbus to a free windshield wash for travelers at Kosciusko's info center to the distribution of "Hospitality Bucks" to tourists on the Gulf Coast.

Also during National Tourism Week, members of the Mississippi travel industry will join others from the nine-state Southeast Tourism Society for "Southeast Hoedown" in Washington, D.C. May 19-20. The event, featuring Southern food and entertainment, will be held for members of Congress, the travel industry and media.

USM summer registration set

HATTIESBURG—An open registration period is set May 19-21 for students who plan to attend summer classes at the University of Southern Mississippi.

A total of 6,042 students attended summer classes a year ago. That was 1.3 percent higher than the previous year and set a new USM enrollment record for the summer term.

Students began advance registration for the 1987 summer term April 13 following sessions with faculty advisers. The add/drop and open registration period is scheduled May 12-21, from 1-5 p.m. each day, in Room C of the University Union.

USM residence halls will open May 31 and summer classes will start June 2, according to Registrar Danny Montgomery.

Students registering for the summer sessions may pay their fees by mail through May 22 and may pay in person at the Union on May 23-29. Registration will be cancelled if fees are not paid by 7 p.m. on June 1.

USM Business Office Officials will be available at the Registration Center in order that students can pay fees or make arrangements to pay fees for the summer sessions.

A new computerized, advanced registration system implemented last fall for the 1987 spring term was labeled a success by Montgomery.

About 80 percent of USM students registered in advance, eliminating the necessity for long lines that had traditionally accumulated with the old registration system at Reed Green Coliseum.

Gardening series set for ETV

With warmer, dryer weather setting in during mid to late May, it's time to review the basics of "watering" in the next program in Mississippi ETV's "Gardening Southern Style" series at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, May 20. The program will be rebroadcast at 3 p.m., Saturday, May 23.

Host Földer Rushing shares his views on watering frequency during this season.

Back at Callaway Gardens in Pine Mountain, Georgia, the watering procedures are observed. He also explains "trickle irrigation" as well as different types of sprinklers that can be installed for efficient watering.

While Rushing is on the subject of water in this program, he will cover water gardens and water plants as special accents.

"Gardening Southern Style" is a production of Mississippi Educational Television and is being distributed by the Southern Educational Communications Association (SECA).

Rushing also is the author of the book "Gardening Southern Style," published by University Press of Mississippi. For more information about the book, interested persons should write Gardening Southern Style, Mississippi ETV, P.O. Box 1101, Jackson, MS 39215-1101.

Ladner seeking judge's slot in Justice Court West

DARRELL W. LADNER

Darrell W. Ladner has announced his candidacy for Justice Court judge, West District, Hancock County in the August Democratic primary election.

Ladner, 37, a resident of the Necaise Community and a lifelong resident of Hancock County, is the son of James B. Ladner of the Dedeaux Community and the late Margaret Ladner.

He is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. D. "May Day" Ladner of Dedeaux, Mrs. Ethel Ladner of Necaise, and the late Felix "Bill Cap" Ladner.

He is a 1969 graduate of Hancock North Central High School. He was employed at Ingalls Shipbuilding for eight years. Equitable Shipyards for five years and is now employed by Skipperfield Farms.

He is married to Rhonda Ladner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Spence, formerly of the Lakeshore Community and has two children, Karen, 15 and Darren, 8.

"If elected I will be fair and impartial to the best of my ability."

Prendergast announces for Hancock Circuit clerk

Madeline Prendergast, a resident of Bay St. Louis for the past 26 years, has announced that she is a candidate for the office of Circuit Clerk of Hancock County.

Prendergast, 47, attended John McDonough High School in New Orleans and Jeff Davis Junior College in Biloxi.

Prendergast is the widow of Louis Prendergast Sr. and has four sons—Louis, Edward, Michael and Anthony, all of them reside and are employed in Hancock County.

Prendergast served the last three years as tax collector for the city of Bay St. Louis. She served 8½ years as deputy clerk for the Chancery clerk's office.

She feels her experience in the city tax office and the Chancery clerk's office makes her uniquely qualified to administer the Court Department of the Circuit Clerk's office as well as the marriage license and voter registration divisions.

"Issuance of marriage licenses is an administrative function requiring determination of proper identities and ages. Having been married for 20 years and three married sons gives me a special finesse and caring for this job," Prendergast said.

"I feel that Mr. Rutherford has done an excellent job by seeing that the voter registration rolls are now computerized; it is something that has long been overdue. I will have no problems with the system in use and as Circuit Clerk will further refine it so that the system's full potential will be utilized," she stated.

Prendergast feels that her vast experience in city and county government qualifies her for the post of Circuit clerk.

"My campaign platform promises honesty, long hours, hard work and an office that all Hancock County will be proud of," Prendergast added.

"I intend to personally call on as many of you as I possibly can before the August 4 election, and I am also asking at this time for your support and your vote," Prendergast stated.

Holston seeking house post re-election

State Representative Curtis Holston is seeking re-election in District 106.

"I will always be grateful to the citizens of District 106 for having allowed me the valuable experience of serving you in the Mississippi House of Representatives. I have served you with the best of my ability, and I have conscientiously tried to make you a good public servant," Holston said.

"Four years ago I promised the citizens of District 106 that I would make strong political stands, that I would not turn my back upon certain issues just because it may be politically unwise," he continued.

"During the past four years, I fought to make the House of Representatives more open and democratic. I was one of the original 'House 26' who proposed rules changes in the House in 1984, knowing at that time our chances of winning were nil, also knowing the political repercussions that would follow such a stand."

"We lost then, but we kept fighting and we won our fight at the beginning of the 1987 session. I am proud to have been a part of making these great changes. They are a major step forward in bringing our state government into the 20th Century," he added.

"You will now be better served as a result of this victory. It is of utmost importance that I will be allowed to return to Jackson to help elect the new leadership of the House of Representatives," the candidate stated.

Major legislation was accomplished these past four years even though we faced some of the most trying times in the history of our state," he added.

"If you believe that I have the strength and the stamina to stand responsibly for you...if you think that I have the vision, vitality, enthusiasm, and the endurance to serve your purpose...if you believe I have the ability and the courage to work in your behalf, then I ask you to give me your vote and support in this upcoming election," Holston stated.

Commodities distribution scheduled

Hancock County Welfare Department will distribute USDA Commodities—cheese, butter, cornmeal, dry milk, and rice—on Wednesday at the American Legion Hall on Coleman Avenue in Waveland.

Distribution hours will be from 9:30 a.m. until all of the commodities are distributed but no later than 2 p.m.

Eligible participants are those that receive Food Stamps or Low Income Households who have applied for commodities at the Welfare Department and been determined eligible.

Participants are reminded that they must bring their signed voucher with them in order to receive the commodities. If a participant wishes to have someone else pick up their commodities, they must sign the voucher on the front and on back and the person picking up the commodities must sign it on back and bring it to the distribution.

Participants are reminded that they can only pick up commodities for two households at a time. One issuance of commodities weighs 25 pounds. If not able to carry 25 pounds, or wait in line in the heat, please send someone else to pick up the commodities.

Non-Food Stamp recipients may apply for the commodities at the Welfare Department on Monday, May 18 and Tuesday, May 19, or at the Distribution Site on Wednesday, May 20.

ETV Brief

FARM CO-OPS

"Farmweek" will look at cooperative landowner-hunter programs in northeast Mississippi at 7:30 p.m., Monday, May 18, on Mississippi ETV.

These pilot programs are intended to improve timber and wildlife management on privately owned land.

"Farmweek" reporters will interview landowners involved in the Red Bud Conservation League in Tishomingo County. They will also talk to Greg Yarrow, and Extension wildlife specialist in the northeastern part of the state, who has helped the landowners with the cooperative program.

Hancock Women's Club

The regular monthly meeting of the Hancock Women's Club was held at the King Wai Chinese Restaurant in Bay St. Louis on Thursday, May 14 with Lois Cripple presiding. There were 31 members and two guests, Lillian Harnett and Wilma Knoke, present.

The yard sale on May 2 was the most successful held by the club to date. Unsold items were donated to the St. Vincent de Paul thrift shop.

The membership voted to donate $300 to the Adult Literacy Educational Program for the purchase of supplies needed to conduct the program, which is sponsored by the Hancock County Library System and directed by Sister Helene Roth.

This program is also in need of more teaching volunteers and several of our club members are interested in preparing for this activity when the next training class is held.

The club members also voted to donate $100 to the Mississippi Epilepsy Association.

Jeanne Garcia spoke about the Ellisville State School, which is a retardation center, and their need for donations of toys and games, and all kinds of knitted items, such as stockings, caps, sweaters or small afghans. Since their federal funds have been reduced they are unable to purchase these items.

The door prize was won by Loraine Townsend.

On May 28 there will be a craft workshop at 1 p.m. at the home of Ruth Gallagher, 332 Terrace Street, Waveland. The group will decorate ceramic masks.

The Waveland library will not be available for next month's meeting on June 11. The membership will be notified in advance of new location. The June meeting is the last one before summer break, with resumption of September 10. Planning is already under way for various fall activities.

Robert Harvey Chapter, DAR

The Favre Street cottage of Mrs. Lloyd H. H. Labatut will be the scene of a picnic luncheon and meeting on Saturday May 23 of the Robert Harvey Chapter, Louisiana Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution. The Captain Edward Jordan Society of the Children of the American Revolution will also attend.

Assisting Mrs. Labatut will be co-hostesses Miss Annie Justice, Mrs. Jewel Labatut, and CAR member, Melissa Labatut.

Regent Mrs. Eugene Wagner will give a talk on her trip to Continental Congress in Washington, D.C.

Diamondhead Art Association

Dorothy Booth and Charlotte Reshew were co-hostesses at the May meeting of the Diamondhead Art Association with 20 attending.

Charter member Jeannine Longanecker presented the program "The Art of Paper Making" and demonstrated each step to the group. All phases were explained.

Thirteen of the members signed up for a workshop in the near future which will be held outdoors.

Charlotte Reshew announced she will begin children's art classes on Saturday mornings in the card room of the Community Center.

Dorothy Booth gave a brief discussion on portrait painting involving commissions. Pat Garcia displayed her wisteria watercolor.

Coral Strasburger read a poem that received honorable mention in a recent contest and she also displayed a recent oil painting of a magnolia; Tommy Thompson brought the ship model to show the next stage in progress; Ida Tolbert displayed two oils done with palette knives while she visited in Brazil.

Dorothy Booth reminded members of the oil portrait of President and Mrs. Reagan that may be viewed at Diamondhead Inn. This oil painting was done by member artist Sandi Smith. Tickets may be purchased at the next meeting for $1 Monday, June 1, Community Center lobby, 1 p.m.

Guests are invited to join our association, and members are encouraged to bring guests.

Pass Christian Garden Club

The Pass Christian Garden Club Installation Luncheon was held on Thursday, May 7 at Annie's Restaurant.

Newly elected officers installed include Mrs. Robert Doe, president; Mrs. Warren Schultz, first vice-president; Mrs. Gordon Bishop, second vice-president; Mrs. Robert Campbell, recording secretary; Mrs. John Drevar, corresponding secretary; Mrs. A.H. Lasseigne, treasurer; Mrs. Anthony Heibel, historian; and Mrs. Daniel Sentilles, parliamentarian.

A hearty round of applause was given to all new officers. Mrs. Clayton Chapman, past president, expressed her thanks to all her officers for a job well done during the past year and to all members for their support.

Mrs. Robert Doe, newly installed president, gave a brief outline as to her goals for the coming year.

After a summer vacation, the Pass Christian Garden Club will meet on Thursday, September 3 at the Hancock Bank Annex.

American Legion Auxiliary

The regular monthly meeting of the Clement R. Bontemps Auxiliary, Unit 139, met on Monday, May 11 at 7:30 p.m. in the Legion home.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Mattie North, followed by the advance of the colors. The chaplain, Mrs. Roslyn Weathers, recited the prayers; and Mrs. North led the members in the Pledge of Allegiance followed by the Preamble.

The roll call of officers was taken by the secretary, Miss Agnes Wilkerson, after which she read the minutes of the previous meeting.

The treasurer, Mrs. Anna Brehm, read her report on the financial status of the Auxiliary.

The first vice-president, Mrs. Margaret Prevou, gave her report on the membership.

The Girls State chairlady, Mrs. Anna Gayaut, reported there will be 11 girls sent to the program under the sponsorship of the Auxiliary.

The Miss Poppy chairlady, Mrs. Rose Ann Thompson, said their Poppy drive was very successful, and she thanked the members for their help.

The V.A. chairlady, Mrs. Hazel Wohlschlegel, asked for volunteers to help on the farm for the picnic which is given to the Veterans' every month.

The Americanism chairlady, Mrs. Lou Wilkerson, also asked for volunteers to help on May 24 at 3 p.m. with the placing of flags in the local cemeteries where our Veterans are interred, in observance of Memorial Day; and on May 25, at 10 a.m., at the grave site of Clement R. Bontemps, followed by services at the Memorial at the entrance of the Legion home.

The Legislative chairlady, Mrs. Lucille Boudreaux, said that there were still many changes being made to the Veterans programs and asked the members to write to their Congressman.

The Nominating Committee, Mmes. Beatrice Ladner, Oris Planchard, and Anna Gayaut, presented to the members the nominees for the new session of 1987-1988. The election will take place at the next meeting on June 8.

Following the closing prayers, Mrs. North adjourned the meeting.

Pass Christian Garden Club stages flower show

PHOTOGRAPHER Ken Murphy of Bay St. Louis straightens a frame on part of his exhibit, a selection of color photographs of plant-filled landscapes. He received an award of appreciation for the exhibit from the Pass Christian Garden Club.

EDUCATIONAL AWARD—Jean Heibel displays her ribbon for an educational exhibit on color and light. In addition to flowers, vegetables and fruit, her entry featured a selection of gemstones in various colors. Heibel also served as chairperson for the show.

A POINTY CACTUS sits next to its award of merit for horticulture entries. The cactus was grown by Liz Hedgpeth and was one of the entries in the container-grown plant division.

DAISIES ON DRIFTWOOD garnished with moss and alstromeria make up a blue ribbon winner by Bea Johnson. The arrangement won the ribbon in one of the design categories.

WETLANDS EXHIBIT—Bureau of Marine Resources Biologist Dianne Hunt arranges various types of grasses native to wetlands areas for an educational exhibit at the Pass Christian Garden Club's recent Spring flower show. The exhibit received an appreciation award.

BLUE RIBBON—Bobbie Leapley displays her creation in one of the design categories. The blue-ribbon winning design used tiger lilies against a backdrop of curved wooden branches painted gold.

Dena Lynn Bisnette

TRI-COLOR AWARD winner Bertille Lasseigne displays her arrangement, "Birds of the Air," which features bird of paradise blooms.

VIOLA—An award of merit ribbon covers half the front of a bottle holding a blue elf viola. The winning blossom was grown by Jean Heibel.

HATS DECORATED by former judges of the Pass Christian Garden Club's annual Spring flower show feature seasonal themes ranging from Spring to Christmas Holidays, all utilizing bright blooms and ribbons. The hats were one of several special exhibits in the program.

FROM LILIES to leafy varieties of ornamental plants, the horticulture table includes a selection of plants ranging from tree and shrub branches to container-grown plants.

HAWAIIAN ARRANGEMENT—Rosemond Wallace's design entry features banana leaves, loquat fruit, spathy philum and bamboo in a tropical arrangement that won a blue ribbon.

CREATIVITY AWARD—Mrs. J.W. Hedgpeth displays her creativity ribbon for her arrangement of hot poker, scotch broom and fatia leaves.
